

Ji-Yeon...

Listen carefully.
You must do
what I tell you.

Understand ?!

You must ... !

10 A visit at night

The Isle

Haha ..., hello, sir !

Hello.

I am First sergeant
Joo. I lead this unit.

My name is
Go Juong-Min

They look ...

genuine enough
but ...

You sent us
the signal?

It was cut midway
though ...

Yes...

My generator
went out.

I see...

Anyway...

I believe you said
there was a woman.

Where ?

Pardon ?

I don't recall saying that.

Hey, private !

... Sir,
yes, sir !

That voice ...

So, that was him on the radio ...

I couldn't have been mistaken.

He did respond positively to the question.

... Is that so ?

Well, whatever.
Anyway, we've been
on the boat for hours.

Mind if we take
and take a look around?

Of course,
be my guest.

How did they end up like this ?

Seeing them like this reminds me of my days in middle east.

At first, they were bright and talkative ...

After some point ...

After many missions, after soaking
their hands in blood ...

The first sign was loss of smiles.

And then I think I saw their faces in some sort of madness.

They remind me of them ...

Just what happened out there ?

And now ...

They are actively searching the isle like madmen.

No one inside !

Sir !

Found something behind the building, sir ~

Heheh ~

Crap, laundry leftover ...

I tried to hide everything though ...

Heheh...

What was your name ?

Go Jeong-Min!

Tell me while I am being re -

Don't come closer !

Hah, fuck !

Is it so hard to keep your gun in check?

You!

Should know that you shouldn't do this.

You can be reported to your unit.

Why don't you stop this ?

Our unit ?

You mean ...

Do you even have any idea how it is outside ?

Military is nothing out there.

We can deal with them just fine. As long as we don't leave evidence hell yeah.

Just shoot the fucking idiot in the head. Do you think we will care ?

Wh, what ... ?
